Reunions
Steve Singlar (68-69)

The NOLA reunion is now history. We finally got there—10 years after we originally scheduled it.

As always George and Mona Baker put together an excellent schedule and a variety of interesting venues to enjoy. The lush plantations tours provided insight into a long ago lifestyle.

Touring downtown showed the "classic" New Orleans we have all come to know. Plenty of food, beer and music.

The WWII museum, where we held our memorial, was very moving. The 4-D movie, narrated by Tom Hanks was exceptional.

Many shipmates and guests enjoyed the dinner show with the music of Louie Prima performed by a local group.

Special recognition was given to the WWII vets in the group including, 94 year old, George Brumfield, a Bataan Death March survivor.

Several shipmates took advantage of the reduced room rates to extend their stay and see additional sites or visit friends in the area.

Fortunately the weather cooperated this time and we were all able to get out before the weather turned wet.

The 2016 reunion is scheduled for SEPTEMBER in Memphis. George and Mona have been working on the program and details will be presented in a future newsletter.

The 2017 reunion will be held in June at Harrisburg, PA.
